

Pathway for Pacific National Archives to progress the Implementation of the UNESCO Recommendation concerning the Preservation of, and Access to, Documentary Heritage Including in Digital Form

Background

A PACIFIC Member States Action Plan for the Implementation of the UNESCO Recommendation on Documentary Heritage was developed at a workshop held in Suva, Fiji on 6 September 2017. One of the actions was for MOWCAP to link the PARBICA toolkit to the UNESCO Recommendation so that there is a pathway for Pacific National Archives to influence the implementation of the Recommendation. Implementation of the UNESCO Recommendation is dependent on the actions of Governments, Memory Institutions and others, including MOWCAP and PARBICA.

The PARBICA Recordkeeping for Good Governance Toolkit was developed by Pacific recordkeepers and archivists. The result is a set of recordkeeping tools that are relevant for Pacific National Archives. The toolkit recognizes the importance of managing records well at the time they are created so that those with long-term value can be transferred to the National Archives as documentary heritage.

“Keeping Archives 3rd Edition” is published by the Australian Society of Archivists. It consists of a book and a CD-ROM and its main purpose is to be a practical manual for archivists. Many archivists in the Pacific have significant archival experience but work in low resource environments with limited access to training. MOWCAP recommends this book as a relevant resource for implementing the action plan.

The PARBICA Recordkeeping for Good Governance Toolkit and Keeping Archives together with other training such as that provided by MOWCAP and PARBICA will assist Pacific National Archives to progress the implementation of the Recommendation in Pacific countries.

MOWCAP in consultation with PARBICA has identified some resources which will be helpful for progressing specific requirements for the implementation of the Recommendation. They are suggestions only and are not a comprehensive list of resources.

In the following table the word Guideline refers to the PARBICA toolkit. The letters KA refer to “Keeping Archives”
